

C.V.

George A. Long, M.A.
 Department of Anthropology
 University of Central Florida
 Orlando, FL

Instructor in Anthropology

Education:

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL
 M.A. Degree (1967) Anthropology
 B.A. Degree (1963) Anthropology

Teaching Experience:

Over twenty years college level teaching (including part time)
 Sixteen years at the University of Central Florida
 Last six years full time
 Twelve subjects taught (listed below)
 Includes multiple large sections of GEP courses
 Average student ratings regular exceed college mean

University of Central Florida, Orlando 1992 - current (1/ 08)

General Anthropology
 Human Species
 Cultural Anthropology
 Peoples of the World
 Peoples and Cultures of Latin America
 Indians of the Southeast
 Indians of the High Plains
 Ethnology of North American Indian
 Florida Archaeology
 Archaeology and the Rise of Human Culture
 Archaeology of Complex Societies
 North American Archaeology
 Old World Prehistory

Other Teaching Experience

Over the years, starting in 1965, I have taught part time (evenings) as an adjunct instructor while otherwise usually employed in non-academic endeavors. Includes Valencia Community College, Lake-Sumter Community College, Seminole Community College, Rollins College(Brevard County Branch), and Brevard Community College.

Archaeological Experience:

Participated as a student in archaeological excavations in Florida, the Republic of Panama (Spanish colonial kiln site), South Dakota (earth lodges), and New Brunswick, Canada (trading post).

Later conducted site surveys in Florida, studied colonial French artifacts at historic sites in Canada, and completed a minor excavation in Quebec.

Member of the advisory board for the east central region of the Florida Public Archaeology Network

Reports:

Long, George A

1966 Indian and Historic Sites, Kennedy Space Center, NASA
(survey on file State of Florida, and NASA)

1967 Archaeological Investigations at Panama La Vieja. M.A. thesis,
Dept. of Anthropology, University of Florida, Gainesville

1973a Progress Report on Faience Research, Research Bulletin, No. 12
National Historic Sites Service, Ottawa

1973b Tin-glazed Earthenware from the Machualt, Research Bulletin,
No. 13, National Historic Sites Service, Ottawa (shipwreck site)

1976 Archaeological Study for the Pensacola Shoreline Drive, Bureau of Historic Sites & Properties, Tallahassee, Misc. Project Report Series, No. 36
(survey)

Long, George A. and Gerard Gusset

1972 Fort Chambly Excavations, National Historic Sites Service, Ottawa, *Manuscript
Report Series*, No. 74